It equalizes them as far as the old term servile labor is concerned. Of course these statutes have come down from times when those expressions were used. I have enjoyed very good personal relations with the Seventh-day Adventists, and have some of them as clients. It is more of a coldblooded legal proposition, whether they are to keep open stores on Sunday, and whether that is servile labor or not. one day, and the law also forces them to rest on another, they will thus be forced to violate the first provision of tha commandment they are conscientiously attempting to keep. In Business in Hitchcock, Okla. The plaintiffs in error in this case were prosecuted and convicted in the county court of Blaine County for violating our Sabbath, or Sunday, laws. It appears from the record that they were conducting a general mercantile business at Hitchcock, Okla., and exposed their merchandise for sale on Sunday; that this was done in an orderly, peaceable, and quiet way. And there is no complaint that it was done in such manner as to interrupt or disturb other persons in observing Sunday, or the first day of the week, as holy time. It also appears that plaintiffs in error are and were Seventh-day Adventists, and uniformly and religiously observed Saturday, or the seventh day of the week, as a day of rest and holy time. . After designating the first day of the week...
