Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.After a career of many years in the east, Norma Jean Clark returns to take over the old home place in Herpel, Arkansas expecting to find peace and quiet. Second day home she is met with a land dispute that leads into a personal mystery. What really happened to her mom? Did her dad hold secrets to his dying day? She heads down a pathway to find the truth. In the first of many Norma Jean mysteries to come, Herpel Hollow Homecoming begins with Norma Jean Clark returning to the old farm. The homestead and land belonged to the Clark family for generations, most recently willed to Norma when her father died. Jason Brahm with whom Norma had grown up with from a toddler, had taken over the farm duties when Dad Clark got too old to continue. Jason, a black man, had been left with the Clark s when his parents moved on. He d always been treated as a member of the Clark family and Norma s Dad had become his dad. Gentry Newsom enters in the story as a determined land developer who will not take no for an answer. Through Gentry, Norma finds a long lost cousin, Shelly McComb who is claiming part of the Clark land. Pauly Parks, a neighbor also abandoned and taken in by Danny Clark, is a man with a child s mind, but as the mystery unfolds, Norma realizes, though mentally challenged, Pauly is intelligent and knows more about the past than she was aware. With the country ways of Aunt Ida and Norma s inquisitive mind, a story unfolds revealing secrets that lead her...
