Excerpt: .is a cross bar eight feet from the ground. Then there are two posts set in the ground twenty-one feet from the goal posts. To score a goal t e ball must be driven between the oal postsland beneath the cross bar. When the gall is sent between the goal posts but over the cross bar it counts a point. as does also the driving of the hall between the goal pleats and the stakes set twenty-one feet away. en no goals are scored the game is deci ed on the Eoiuts made, but one goal will beat any num er of points. When the ball is driven over a goal line outside of all the posts, the goal keeper has a free kick, and this part of the game always excites enthusiasm. he ball is placed on the ground in front of the goal line, and the goal keeper. who is usually selected for his size and kickin ability, takes a position back of the line and makes a cyclonic rush at the ball, delivering a resounding kick that usually sends the sphere well towards the opposite goal. The time of play is one hour. with an intermission of ten minutes at half time; and when the sturdy exponents of the game have kicked and pounded the leather for an hour, with the accompanying running and struggling, they are in condition to be thankful fora rest. It is a game that requires great...
