BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 50 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in.The Department of Defense (DOD) expects the cost to develop and procure the major weapon systems in its current portfolio to total 1. 6 trillion. With increased competition for funding within DOD and across the federal government, effectively managing these acquisitions is critical. Yet DOD programs too often experience poor outcomes--like increased costs and delayed fielding of needed capabilities to the warfighter. In 2006, this Committee mandated that GAO report on DODs processes for identifying needs and allocating resources for its weapon system programs. In 2007, GAO reported that DOD consistently commits to more programs than it can support. This follow-on report assesses DODs funding approach, identifies key factors that influence the effectiveness of this approach, and identifies practices that could help improve DODs approach. To conduct its work, GAO assessed 20 major weapon programs in DODs current portfolio--5 in detail--and reviewed relevant DOD policy and guidance, prior GAO work, and other relevant literature. GAO also reviewed the practices of selected successful companies. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
