Ghost Stories and Supernatural Tales Ghosts are not just history Twelve beautifully written short tales of the paranormal, including some mild horror stories: Dont Go Back Becalmed in a dinghy in supernatural fog, Charles and Mike see a spectral ship destroy another vessel. Should they tell the story, or will that bring calamity on themselves as well The Girl on the Train Helping a sick girl on a train, a commuter learns he cannot ignore the distress of others and that phantoms may appear in crowds, offices and train stations. They might not seem like spirits, and they might not come from the dead . . . Changing Lanes Mikes wife and daughter vanish at a roadside service area after he angers a vengeful Hells Angel. Mike searches for them, but finds a security guard who will not give him a straight answer. Come to Mummy Ten-year-old Melanie plays hide-and-seek with her mother in a cypress maze, but what secrets does it conceal Do spirits twist sorrow into malice and a compulsion to possess, even after death As a storm gathers, Melanie looks for her mother Dead End Don Beaviss car...
